The Lost Years Of Jesus

The "lost years of Jesus" concept is usually encountered in esoteric literature (where it at times also refers to his possible post-crucifixion activities) but is not commonly used in scholarly literature since it is assumed that Jesus was probably working as a carpenter in Galilee, at least some of the time with Joseph, from the age of 12 to 29, so the years were not "lost years", and that he died on Calvary.

Unknown years of Jesus - Wikipedia

Most Christians are well aware of the fact that the accounts of the life of Jesus, contained within the four New Testament gospels, have a void of about seventeen years with no information about where he was and what he was doing. These seventeen years are referred to by scholars and Christians as the 'lost years' of Jesus.
