Zahra S Paradise

Zahra's Paradise (Persian: بهشت زهرا Behesht-e Zahra) is a webcomic and graphic novel by Amir Soltani and Khalil set in modern Iran. It has been described as a political webcomic dealing with real-time events. Its story follows a mother searching for her son, who disappeared around the time of the Iran's 2009 elections. Serialized online beginning in early 2010, Zahra's Paradise was ...

Zahra's Paradise - Wikipedia

“Zahra’s Paradise” takes place in the days after the 2009-2010 Green Revolution, a protest movement that was violently squashed. Mehdi is a fictional protestor who goes missing. His college-age brother and mother try to find out what happened to Mehdi. As the story progresses, the reader meets a hodgepodge of realistic characters, including the mother’s chain-smoking best friend, a ...

As a way of getting up to speed on recent Iranian history, including the contested 2009 election, the large protests that followed, and the government's brutal response to those protests, Zahra's Paradise is invaluable. This is a brave document, published (under pseudonyms) at considerable risk to its authors, and as a reading experience its emotional impact was, at times, considerable.

Zahra's Paradise by Amir - Goodreads

Zahra's Paradise is the latest in a slew of projects that have successfully filtered politics and history through the medium of the graphic novel – although the book's series of epilogues about the story's symbolism, the Green Revolution, public executions, and the victims of the regime, among other things, suggests that a more strictly prosaic work may be in the offing. As it is ...

Review: Zahra's Paradise - FPIF

Zahra's Paradise, written and illustrated by the anonymous duo Amir and Khalil, is set in the days after the protests against the elections in Iran in the summer of 2009. This graphic novel, which was first serialized on the Internet, begins with a bizarre opening scene: a small boy, somewhere in the mountains of Iran, is feeding a litter of puppies who are being suckled by their mother.
