The Andromeda Strain also suffers from 1950s style overacting, but, overall, the film is bearable. Recommended to patient fans of sci-fi and those interested in history.

The Andromeda Strain (1971) - Rotten Tomatoes

"Andromeda Strain" is one of my favorite movies because it stands the test of time. Although made in the early 1970's, the technology shown, including the computers still looks up-to-date, with the main difference being that today, the graphical displays of the data would be much more colorful. However, the techniques used to analyze the "Andromeda" organism would be the same. Of course, much ...

[On whether The Andromeda Strain could ever happen] I doubt it very much. I wrote it because I thought it was an interesting story, and also because it illustrated a technological problem—once something goes wrong, you have trouble ever getting it right again. In other words, if there's an oil slick on the ocean, adding detergents produces more problems, and compensating for the detergents ...
