There are still more than a few major things we don't know about Red Rising Book 6, including what the title will be. While Pierce Brown still isn't willing or able to give up that information just yet, he did drop an exciting little tidbit about the Dark Age sequel during a conversation with fans on Tuesday night. In short, we're getting at least one new POV in this new book.

Hearing Pierce Brown talk about a hard-R 10-episode season for Red Rising already gives me a lot of hope that, should Red Rising make it to the screen, a TV adaptation would have the time (and hopefully the budget) to do the books justice. And given all of the violence featured in the books, a hard R adaptation sounds about right.

Red Rising: Sons of Ares is a prequel to the Red Rising series that was originally released as 6 comics (which of course being a superfan I've already purchased!), I believe the comics are now out of print and only available as ebooks so I think it's fantastic for fans that we're now getting this hardback bind-up of the whole series. The hardback is available in two versions signed or unsigned which is slightly cheaper.
