The Agency Partnership, LLC in Springfield, MO | Company Info

We set up The Agency Partnership to be different. The pace of change in communications is relentless and many agencies are failing to keep up. Constrained by structures and overheads, they fall-back on what they've always done; unwilling or unable to adapt.

About us - an introduction to The Agency Partnership

Partnership is essentially a kind of agency, since Section 301 of the UPA states that each partner is considered an agent of the partnership for the purpose of its business. Therefore, any act of a partner within his authority that is meant for carrying on the ordinary course of the partnership's business binds the partnership as a whole.

Agency & Partnership Law

A boilerplate partnership or agency clause that seeks to ensure that parties to a commercial agreement will not be treated as partners or agents of each other, nor as entering into a joint venture arrangement with each other. It also asserts that neither party is entering the agreement as the agent of an undisclosed principal.

No partnership or agency | Practical Law

Each analyst maintains full financial models on every company covered and this is alongside company notes, regular sector updates, results analysis and sector themed notes. The key is our ability to be independent and therefore to write timely and thought-provoking research that clients find interesting.
