Playing by Heart by Carmela A. Martino - Goodreads

Laced with admittedly familiar themes of unrequited love, loneliness, repressed sexuality, family loss, marital infidelity, etc. Playing By Heart scores particularly highly in keeping the audience guessing as to its characters' motivations, desires and (even) sexuality and, for me at least, works best in its more serious moments, having been billed as a comedy drama (I found the animals – pets – here prompted my loudest laughs, particularly the one-eyed cat!).
