MOTHER MATTERS is an 8-week online support group run by the Mental Health Program at Women's College Hospital. It will take place on a confidential discussion board, giving you the opportunity to share your thoughts, feelings, and experiences, while learning from and supporting other mothers.

Women's College Hospital - Mother Matters

Motherhood discourse assumes there is a privileged status that all mothers possess (e.g., White, college educated, able to pursue a stable career, upper middle class, and married with a spouse who earns a high-level income) and that this privilege allows them to make clear-cut choices between staying at home or engaging in paid work.
