Welcome to After Eden
This site is dedicated to gardening, gardens, and the idea of the garden. I have called it a digital manuscript because, like the medieval manuscript, it combines words and images—or to be more precise it combines posts, photography, and poetry. The title comes from my interest in gardens and gardening after The Garden.

After Eden

After Eden is a young teen Sci-fi novel set in a modern time frame in Cornwall UK. The main character Eden is a normal run of the mill teenage girl who suffers the same teenage angst as the majority of girls so is easy to relate to.

After Eden (After Eden, #1) by Helen Douglas

"After Eden is a gift, the first fruits of six years of reflection. It is an offering of archaeology, anthropology, paleontology, sociology, and a dozen cousin disciplines upon the altar of theology. For surely the reader who enters into Kirkpatrick Sale's world will emerge wanting to ask God a few questions."

Duke University Press - After Eden

Overall, "After Eden" is a delightfully mixed bag of songs that have charmed and delighted me on many quiet and lonely night. 01. Eden - Possibly the most powerful song on the album. An excellent vocal arrangement, and when the three girls in chorus at around 2:16 the quality of their voices really comes through loud and clear.
