Gnosticism

Far from being a depressing philosophy, Gnosticism is a discipline of deep thought, realistic observation of the world, and ultimate hope. At least, that's my point of view. Some might think Gnosis to be a cynic's delight, others simply a frank depiction of life. I urge you to do your own research and make your own decisions.

What is Gnosticism? A Brief History & Spiritual Beliefs | Gaia

"Gnosticism," says Dr. Gwatkin, "may be provisionally described as a number of schools of philosophy, oriental in general character, but taking in the idea of a redemption through Christ, and further modified in different sects by a third element, which may be Judaism, Hellenism, or Christianity the Gnostics took over only the idea of a redemption through Christ, not the full Christian doctrine, for they made it rather a redemption of the philosophers from matter, than a redemption of ...
