The Bottom Line . The phenomenon of job outsourcing in the United States provokes great economic contention. On one hand, this prevalent practice lowers costs for U.S. companies, enables global competitiveness, and allows them to provide reasonably-priced goods and services.

How Outsourcing Jobs Affects the US Economy

A failure to educate the community about a specialist outsourced approach, only leads to that resource to operate in a vacuum, where their true value is never realised or felt by your organisation. The short-term cost benefits associated with outsourcing, often mask the operational challenges they create for a business in the long term.
