Understanding your Locus of Control - Life Wealth Coaching

In this study, analyses showed individuals with an internal locus of control were not only more likely to believe in a divine power, to admit a divine power helped them in the past, to ask for help from a divine power in the future, to attend places of worship more often than those who were external, but also that they were significantly more likely to maintain their religious beliefs and behaviors over a six year period compared to those with an external orientation.
