What Are the Essentials of the Christian Faith?

Answer: The Bible itself reveals what is important and essential to the Christian faith. These essentials are the deity of Christ, salvation by God's grace and not by works, salvation through Jesus Christ alone, the resurrection of Christ, the Gospel, monotheism and the Holy Trinity. These are the main "essentials" that we should understand and believe if we are followers of Jesus Christ.

What are the essentials of the Christian faith ...

The great St. Augustine famously wrote, "In essentials—unity; in nonessentials—liberty; and in all things—charity." It's important that Christians stay united on the essentials. But before we agree on the essentials—we must first know what they are. This may seem elementary to some, but I assure you, I've run into a fair amount of "long standing" Christians who had not a clue.

Essentials of the Christian faith

Essentials of the Christian Faith. The essentials of the Christian faith consist of core doctrines taught in Scripture. To depart from one or all of these doctrines is to be outside Christian orthodoxy.

Christians may disagree about non-essential doctrines (i.e. the rapture, millennial reign of Jesus, baptism, church government, etc.), and still be regarded as part of the church, the body of Christ (Eph. 1:22-23).

Essentials of the Christian Faith | Thinking on Scripture

The Bible itself reveals those doctrines that are essential to the Christian faith. They are 1) the Deity of Christ, 2) Salvation by Grace, 3) Resurrection of Christ, 4) the gospel, and 5) monotheism. These are the doctrines the Bible says are necessary. Though there are many other important doctrines, these five are the ones that are declared by Scripture to be essential (I call them primary essentials since the Bible declares them as essential).
