 Charity Girl examines one of the darkest periods in our history, when patriotic fervor and fear led to devastating consequences.

Charity Girl by Michael Lowenthal -

Goodreads

Through the experiences of an imagined protagonist, Freida Mintz, Novelist Michael Lowenthal effectively personalizes history. "Charity Girl," a euphemism for a woman who has consensual sexual relations with a man, is an engrossing, compassionate and provocative novel, one which examines the consequences of repression dressed-up as national security.
