Pete Hamill's novel FOREVER grabbed me from page 1. The writing is clear and straightforward. Descriptions are vivid. Action scenes engage and intrigue. The main character's emotions are portrayed realistically and never overwritten. And, oh, the history! From Ireland just before and during the famines, to New York City ... from its early days through 9/11. The reader is there. This is indeed ...

Pete Hamill (Author of Forever) - Goodreads

Pete Hamill is an incredible writer. I've been to New York several times but I've never lived there. And I am typically highly critical of literary fiction, because some authors in that genre write beautiful prose but are unable to string sentences and paragraph together to create an actual story.
