Rameau On The Piano Volume

The second volume in pianist Stephen Gutman's three-disc survey of Rameau's complete keyboard music begins with the composer's harpsichord transcriptions of the ballet music from his opera Les Indes galantes, heard in what appears to be their first recording on a modern concert grand. Gutman's booklet notes present detailed analyses of how Rameau carefully went about his business of "de-orchestration".

This series of three CDs presents all his keyboard music on the piano: the familiar suites, a number of discoveries and arrangements by his contemporaries.

The keyboard works of Jean-Philippe Rameau have not been played often on a modern piano. It will not do to claim, as does the copywriter of the back-cover text here, that the comparative neglect of Rameau's keyboard music is due to this fact; harpsichordists, with their growing body of performance insights, have tended indeed to rediscover composers.
