The Hidden History of the JFK Assassination Author: Lamar ...

The Hidden History of the JFK Assassination. Lamar Waldron Berkeley, California: Counterpoint, 2013, h/b, £20 (approx.) Waldron has some form. This is his third book on JFK and is largely a rehashing and enlargement of the previous two.1He has earlier argued for a secret Kennedy venture known as C-Day that planned for a coup in Cuba to be carried out by the Pentagon and the CIA which would be synced with the assassination of Castro by an undercover operator on the island.

An offer we can refuse - Lobster

Waldron tells us all throughout the book the CIA cannot be trusted because, even at the highest levels, they deceived JFK at the Bay of Pigs, by not informing him of their continued work with the mob on plots to assassinate Castro - which Kennedy had banned, and by being deeply involved in the mob-assassination of Kennedy - so how we are suddenly expected to trust the CIA's evidence that JFK was planning a coup, a coup that was also infiltrated by the mob from day one, is slightly ridiculous.
