Books by Anya Seton (Author of Katherine)

I first attempted to read Devil Water about 20 years ago, but was unable to even get through chapter one. It is testament to how my reading tastes have matured, I suppose, that this time around when I picked it up, I found the story completely engrossing right from the start until its conclusion 500 pages later. It was Anya Seton's particul...

Jenny is an unconventional heroine. She cannot escape her fate, but she faces life bravely and never loses her dignity. Perhaps this is the greatest gift she ever received from her father. I highly recommend this novel and plan to read all of Seton's work.
