Wytze or Wietse Keuning was a Dutch school teacher, author and classical music critic. He was the co-author of three series of successful primary schoolbooks and one book of folk tales for young people. He wrote three novels situated in the northern part of Holland and a three-part three-volume fictionalized biography of Ashoka the Great. Keuning finished writing a two-part historical novel on Helena, the mother of Constantine the Great, but died before the publication process was started.

This is a book which matches the scope of the count monte cristo, the philosophical & cultural depth of Les Misérables, the historical analysis of war & peace. I have read all 4 above I found this book is in no way lesser in the literary strength & in brilliance of narration. Wytze Keuning was a school teacher & here he has given a great lesson, should be read by all leaders, patriots, history fans, buddhists, & teachers. etc
