The Anarchist S Design Book

This book is the brother to The Anarchist's Toolchest. While there are plans for pieces in it (some of which I'd like to build, others that I don't find appealing) the focus isn't on the plans themselves but the simple design process (prototyping) and techniques (board, staked) that were used to arrive at the finished piece.

The Anarchist's Design Book by Christopher Schwarz

"The Anarchist's Design Book" explores 18 historic and simple-to-make furniture forms that have been around for almost 1,000 years, yet look shockingly modern. You'll make a bed, dining tables, chairs, chests, desks and shelving as you learn two approaches - "boarded" and "staked" - to build these pieces and more.
