Pink Floyd's Animals Pulls No Political Punches 40 Years

... Animals has everything you could want from middle-period Pink Floyd, but you're starting to get that later Waters-era political bite as well. This is the only album where I feel like they successfully blend all of their different periods and styles together - psychedelic, prog rock, ambient, political rock, melodic rock - with a harder edge than they had on either Wish You Were Here or Dark Side.
