The Valley of Jezreel, also known as the Plain of Megiddo, is Israel's most famous battlefield. Countless armies have raged across this vast open and highly strategic valley, as early as the Egyptians and Canaanites in the 15th century BC and as recently as the British and Ottomans during World War I. According to Christian theology, the valley's most famous struggle, the prophetic and titanic Battle of Armeggedon, has not even taken place yet.
