The Gift of Death was not easy to read, but it was definitely the most lucid and compelling text I've so far read written by the Algerian-French philosopher. His treatment of the sermon on the mount is interesting, but more so is all the discussion about 'the gaze' and

'the gift'.

The Gift of Death and Literature in Secret by Jacques Derrida

While continuing to explore questions introduced in "Given Time" such as the possibility, or impossibility, of giving and the economic and anthropological nature of gifts, this work focuses on the notion of responsibility and the ultimate gifts of life and death. Jacques Derrida divides the book into four parts, which deal respectively with: the development of the notion of responsibility in the Platonic and Christian traditions; the relation between sacrifice and mortality; the contemporary ...
