"The Little Stranger" marks a departure for novelist Sarah Waters, who has also written works like "Affinity" and "Tipping the Velvet" which had lesbian themes in them. "The Little Stranger" does not have such themes, instead it is a well-constructed, beautifully-written Gothic tale that focuses on a crumbling great house in the English countryside.

The Little Stranger book by Sarah Waters

The Little Stranger is tagged on the blurb as “a chilling ghost story”, which is both true and misleading. In an interview,

Waters said that while in the process of writing the book, she became 'stuck' and decided then on the introduction of a ghost.
