Easy Bake Coven 1 Liz

Easy Bake Coven is an unusual book in that it stars out chick-flick and humorous, but somewhere along the lines turns to fantasy. The title suggests a book about witches, but what you get is something else entirely. The story is enjoyable and engaging enough, funny and sexy in places. But the main character, Selene, is never really challenged.

Easy-Bake Coven. In 1649, the town is witness to many witch burnings. In the church, the townspeople try to figure out whom to condemn next. People begin accusing others and soon they erupt into chaos, until Marge intervenes. She tries to talk sense into the townspeople, but Moe accuses her of being a witch.

Treehouse of Horror VIII - Wikipedia

I was still able to pick up on what was happening because I did read book 1. I love the non-stop action. The book goes back and forth between the MCs and wha cover/title: It was more the series name that drew my attention. I love the play on words. A witch coven mixed up with a toy every little girl wanted when growing up: the easy bake oven.
