Recently purchased an XL1 and it doesn't have the correct bar on it. The bar is 16" and fits but the oil holes don't line up, it almost seems like it is for a larger saw. Does any one happen to know the Homelite part number for an XL1 16" bar? I would like to put an OE bar on it but would settle for a aftermarket one if anyone knows a part number for one of those as well. Thanks
