necessary, even if that means involves killing. If however, you're smart and attractive and hung like a pepper grinder, you'll think of necromancers like Johannes Cabal.

Johannes Cabal the Detective by Jonathan L. Howard

The Detective is the second book in the Johannes Cabal series. I read and reviewed the first book earlier last year and decided to give the second book a go. As much as I enjoyed the first book, I sadly cannot say the same of the second. While Cabal was still his brash self, he didn't have as an effective foil as he did in the first book.

Second in the Johannes Cabal series. This is a new narrator, the previous one who made Johannes Cabal Necromancer a five star listen, unfortunately died of septicemia. However, I cannot find anything to criticize about Robin Sachs, the new narrator. The book opens with Cabal, the Necromancer, the prisoner in a dungeon.
