In 1986, Morita wrote an autobiography titled Made in Japan. He co-authored the 1991 book The Japan That Can Say No with politician Shintaro Ishihara, where they criticized American business practices and encouraged Japanese to take a more independent role in business and foreign affairs. (Actually, Morita had no intention to criticize American practices at that time.)

Akio Morita - Wikipedia

One analogy Morita made that has stuck with me, the Japanese style of company building is like making a rock house - you take the rocks which come in different shapes and you go about building the house. The shape of the house would very well depend on the rocks you gather.
